

This privacy statement discloses the privacy practices for www.christieoncologyimaging.com. It applies solely to this website.

We will retain data about you which we obtain as a result of you visiting this website. We will not sell personal information or share personal information with any third parties unrelated to The Christie NHS Foundation Trust.

When you specifically provide us with any personal information when raising an enquiry or complaint, we will only retain that personal information you provide to allow us to deal with your enquiry or complaint. This information will be treated confidentially.